We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower, for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Liver Trouble that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual constiveness, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, dependent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25 cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. W. T. Brooks.

(11-ly-04) G. G. GREEN, Woodbury, N. J.

Caution!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents.—W. T. Brooks. 11-ly-04

BULGARIAN GOVERNMENT.

It Decides to Maintain Neutrality in the Macedonian Question.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 7.—According to reliable reports from Varna, at the recent council of ministers presided over by Prince Ferdinand at the palace of Euxinograd, it was resolved that Bulgaria should continue to maintain an attitude of the strictest neutrality in the Macedonian question and further that the most stringent measures should be adopted to prevent anything likely to cause a disturbance in Bulgaria's relations with Turkey. The war minister is reported to have spoken strongly in the council against any thought of Bulgaria declaring war on Turkey; first, on account of the enormous expenditure that such a war would involve, and secondly, because the great powers would never permit Bulgaria to reap the advantage if she were victorious. Should Turkey attack Bulgaria, declared the minister, the present army could hold the Turks in check for the first few days while the entire Bulgarian army could be mobilized within three to twelve days. Bulgaria would never declare war, he added, but if war was declared against her, she would accept the challenge fearlessly.

As an evidence of Bulgaria's peaceful intentions, the council decided that upon the first symptoms of disorder on the frontier martial law would be proclaimed at Burgas, Kostendil, Philippopolis and Sofia. The ministers expressed the opinion that the powers would soon reach the conviction that the Macedonian question could not be decided without their intervention.

The Autonomium publishes the names of 50 villages burned by the Turks in the following districts: Resen, 30 villages; Dostur, 14; Brushevo, 6 and one monastery. The Turks burned four villages in the district of Strushkopolis and murdered the priest. The population fled to the mountains. The Turks have destroyed all the flour mills in the district of Resen and also every church. A fight is reported to have taken place at the village of Vetrsko, in the district of Kumanovo, between a body of insurgents and a Turkish battalion. It lasted four hours and the Turks lost heavily.

Reports have reached the revolutionary headquarters of atrocities by the Turks in the village of Velmosti, in the district of Debar. Troops and Bashi Bazouks are said to have surrounded the village and part of them entered and began plundering the houses and assaulting the women. The other soldiers remained outside and killed those inhabitants who tried to escape. The Turks then set fire to the village in four places, burning 12 women and children. One child was hanged. Altogether 60 peasants were killed and their bodies were left lying in the streets.

WAR OF EXTERMINATION.

Massacres in the Vilayet of Monastir Are of Daily Occurrence.

London, Sept. 7.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Monastir, telegraphing under Saturday's date, says: "There is no doubt that a Turkish war of extermination is proceeding in the Okrida district. The massacres of a century ago are as nothing compared with those occurring daily in the vilayet of Monastir. I have obtained substantial evidence to prove that the Turkish nisams (Turkish regular troops) are in most cases committing unheard of atrocities, which are not solely the work of the Bashi Bazouks, as the authorities are seeking to prove. The plight of the survivors is terrible. Not daring to leave their houses and subsisting on grass and water, they resemble people in the last stages of famine. The Turks are also losing heavily, judging from the number of injured arriving here.

Among the instances he gives in support of his statement the correspondent relates that a priest's son in one village was flayed alive and kept in this horrible condition for several days to the delight of his tormentors until a merciful Turk shot him dead.

KING PETER OF SERBIA.

An Unconfirmed Report of An Attempt on His Life.

Vienna, Sept. 7.—Special dispatches give an unconfirmed report of an attempt on King Peter's life at Nish on Saturday. It is said that stones were thrown at the royal carriage, one striking the king in the face, and a pistol was fired from a neighboring window. It is also rumored that the Sixth Serbian regiment, notorious for the part it played in the recent regicides, has been ordered to Nish.

The Killing of Sergt. L. G. Bryson. New London, Ct., Sept. 7.—Sergt. L. G. Bryson, of the Second company, coast artillery, stationed at Fort H. G. Wright, Fisher's island, who was killed at the post Saturday afternoon, was shot by a sentry, who had been ordered to place him under arrest for creating a disturbance. Further information is refused by the officer at the fort.

Papal Secretary of State. Rome, Sept. 7.—With reference to the report that Cardinal Moran, of Sydney, N. S. W., has been offered the post of papal secretary of state, it can be said that Pius X. has taken no decision regarding the appointment of a state secretary.

To Stop the Massacres in Macedonia. Rome, Sept. 7.—Pius X. has represented to the Austrian emperor the advisability, especially on the part of the Catholic powers, of coming to an agreement as to the best way to stop the massacres in Macedonia.
